

Infinite Luxury

EXCLUSIVE OBJECTS, GOURMET CUISINE, HOUTE COUTURE, LASER LIGHTS SHOW AND OF COURSE LIVE MUSIC WERE THE MAIN ELEMENTS THAT ENRICHED THE FIRST PRIVILEGE FAIR IN THE HOTEL BLAU PORTO PETRO.

Guests and visitors could enjoy a special event that took place on 19th July. This Saturday night will be unforgettable for all who came to celebrate good taste and good eating. More than 350 persons took part in the fashion show of four emerging Mallorcan fashion designers. Estefanía Borrás, Laura Fernández, Manisha Budhroni were responsible for presenting their collection of dresses. Real prêt-à-porter with houte couture style.

Estefania Borrás presented a collection that was a celebration of nature. Feminine clothes made of cotton showed that beauty and comfort can easily merge. The oversize clothes with exposed back stood out. As for colours it was good old black, white and grey.

Laura Fernandez showed her collection "Volver a Empezar" that catered for elegant evening dresses with transparent fabrics. Manisha presented the collection "One" in which each garment had its own history with an ethnic and floral touch.

The shoes that wore the models came from the Menorcan company Mascaró.

As a big surprise in Moda Mallorca 2008 show, excellent designer León Varres marched on the red carpet in the company of his models wearing impressive dresses made from American Express gold cards.

The gala party was transmitted live in all over Europe by Fashion TV. ■
